As the war in Israel enters its 19th month, we have a duty to continue strengthening our soldiers and keep their spirits up as they protect Israel and the diaspora.

The cost of sponsoring 250 meals is $1,600.

Citizen's Kitchen in Numbers

- 4000+ total volunteers have helped in the efforts
- 150,000+ meals and counting delivered
- $300,000+ already raised to cover supplies and operational costs

Delivering Comfort Through Food

- Army units in the north and south
- Displaced families
- Holocaust survivors
- Reserve duty families
- Injured soldier events
- Families of hostages

Citizen's Kitchen is a grassroots wartime meal operation that started on October 8th, 2023. Sisters Aliya and Shaendl, owners of Tel Aviv-based cooking studio Citrus and Salt, turned their studio into Citizen's Kitchen. Citizen's Kitchen became a volunteer community made up of Olim, local Israelis, and volunteers from abroad. Today, Citizen's Kitchen continues to send up to 500 meals a day.
